WHO AM I? – 2-Part

PERFORMANCE NOTES

The poem Who Am I? was written by Inge Auerbacher some years ago. A radio host spoke of a famous Christmas song, “White Christmas” written by Irving Berlin, a Jew. He then mentioned that U.S. Senator Orrin Hatch, a Mormon had written a song for the Jewish holiday of Hanukkah. This led Inge to composer Madeline Stone who had co-written the song with Hatch.

The song “Who Am I?” was born. Inge contacted the choir ps22 S.I. of New York City director, Gregg Breinberg. She sent a recording to the United Nations; consequently, the choir was invited to sing and Inge to speak at International Holocaust Remembrance Day on 1/28/2019.

Inge Auerbacher is a child survivor of the Terezin concentration camp, retired chemist, International Speaker, author of numerous books, songwriter, and recipient of many prestigious awards. www.ingeauerbacher.com

Madeline Stone is a multi-platinum, award-winning American songwriter. She has won prestigious awards including the Song of the Year and a Dove Award. Stone was discovered by the legendary songwriter Hal David. www.madelinestonemusic.com
